

JAPS' ARMY IS NEAR TO WIJU

Have Driven the Russians North, and Are Close Upon Their Heels Today.

TOGO AGAIN MAKES AN ATTACK

Poor Port Arthur Is Said To Have Suffered from a Terrific Shelling From the Fleet
Very Recently.

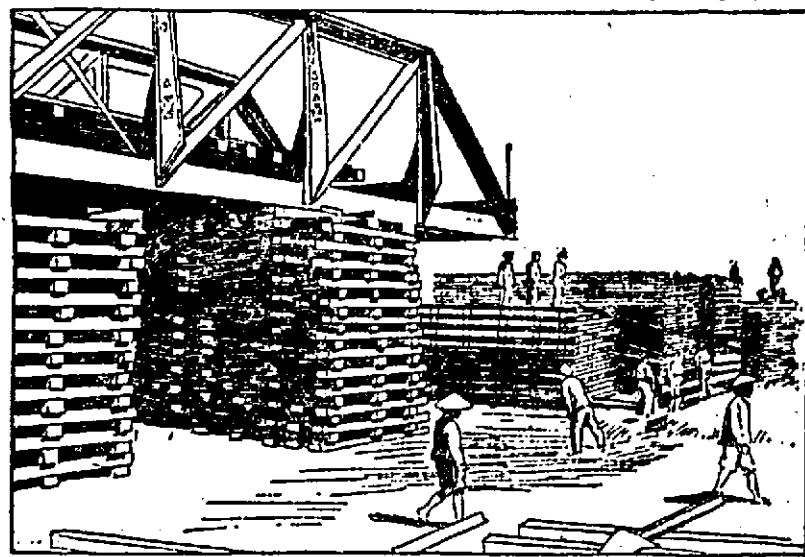

London, April 2.—If reports which came from Tokyo are correct the Japanese army last Tuesday was only fifteen miles from Wiju. A telegram from Tokyo says:

"Information has been received here from a private source that the Japanese troops, after dislodging the Russians at Chingju, about fifty miles northwest of Pingyang, on March 28, rested for one day and then advanced to Yongchun, about forty-five miles west of Chingju. After a brief engagement here they drove the enemy farther north, the Russians retreating toward Urgan, about eighty miles celves no credence here. It is believed, however, that an attack may be made at any hour.

There is a growing conviction in naval and military circles that Vice Admiral Togo's desperate endeavors to bottle up or cripple the Port Arthur squadron are for the purpose of definitely immobilizing it while the Japanese effect a landing at Newchwang or some other point.

Vice Admiral Makarov's capture of a Japanese steamer, near an island between the extremity of the Liaotung peninsula and the Shantung peninsula, leaves him watching northeast of Yagajun.

Yongchun is within twenty miles of Wiju, the base of the Russian army of the Yalu, and the point at which the first severe land engagement must be fought for the control of the mouth of the river and the capture of Antung.

The Japanese front, from unofficial reports, extends from Kasan, on the coast west of Anju, in a semi-circle to Pakchung and Ussuri.

Attack on Port Arthur.

A dispatch from Tokyo says Vice Admiral Togo made another attack on Port Arthur during the night of March 30-31. The dispatch adds that it is understood the attack was for the purpose of taking soundings and ascertaining the effects of the fleet attempt to bottle up the Russian fleet. No details of the attack are obtainable.

Russians Sink Jap Steamer.

A Wehahel correspondent reports that the Japanese steamer Hanlon Maru, previously reported captured and sunk by the Russians, was sunk by a Russian torpedo boat and that twenty-five persons on board were lost. Reports from Russian sources, however, assert all on board were taken off before the vessel was sunk. The vessel had been chartered as a dispatch boat by a Japanese newspaper.

Report Is Discredited.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—If the Japanese fleet attacked Port Arthur the war department here is in ignorance of the fact. The London report receives no credence here.

ODESSA MOBS HARASS JEWS IN THE STREETS

Thronging Insult Their Victims, Threatening Death and Destruction of Property, Defying Police.

Odessa, April 2.—Wild scenes of disorder prevailed here Friday, when, by an apparently concerted move, big crowds gathered in the streets to harass the Jews.

The throngs grew more and more disorderly, and rushed after their victims, crying out insults, and for a time threatening the destruction of shops and injury to all the Jews who had failed to hide themselves.

The mob grew so demonstrative that the police were called out in large force, but the angry crowds defied them and refused to disperse.

The Jews are in great terror and some fled to the suburbs, and others to the homes of one of their kinsmen, in which event anarchy would certainly prevail.

The police warned the inhabitants against the dissemination of lies calculated to arouse race hatred. Officers will be liable to three months' imprisonment and a $50 fine. The warning begins:

"All the emperor's subjects, to whatever faith or race they belong, the entrance of the gulf of Pechili. It is not believed the Japanese will attempt to debark on the shores of the Liaotung gulf while Makarov's fleet is unripped.

"On March 29 the anniversary of the Russian occupation of Port Arthur was celebrated with a religious service and a military review.

"On March 30 occurred the funeral of the men killed on board the torpedo boat destroyer Sini during the Japanese attempt to block the port on March 27. A large concourse attended the funeral.

"The Grand Duke Boris arrived on the same day and was given a public welcome.

"All is quiet."

Russians Claim a Victory.

The following semi-official dispatch has been received from Liaoyang:

"In the first encounter with the Japanese in northern Korea, which was crowned with victory for the Russian arms, the enemy's losses were ten times those of the Russians.

"According to Korean reports, the Japanese buried fifty men, while 120 wounded were removed with the help of 500 Koreans to the headquarters of the Japanese main force.

"The confusion of the Japanese was so great that they hoisted two Red Cross flags in token of surrender.

"Throughout their war with China the Japanese never showed themselves so distracted. The people here are in high spirits over the news of the first brilliant fight in Korea."

enjoy equal rights and protection under the laws of Russia. Only enemies of Russia will stir up strife."

PLAN BIG TELEPHONE MERGER

Independent Companies Will Build
Factory for Supplies.

La Porte, Ind., April 2.—Henry A. Barnhart of Rochester, president of the Independent Telephone association, which embraces independent exchanges in all sections of the United States, was in the city on his way to Chicago. He stated that plans were about consummated for a merger of the independent companies for the organization of a company with a capitalization of $1,000,000 for the building of a factory for the manufacture of telephone supplies. It is said that the Bell company has been engaged in buying up the supply factories in the way of competition and that as a protective measure the organization of a company to furnish supplies to the small exchanges becomes imperative if they are not to be driven out of existence.

[By Wisconsin News Association.]

Manitowoc, Wis., April 2.—Joseph Kuska suicided here this morning by hanging. He was a consumptive and despondent. He was forty-one years old. He deliberately told his wife to go to bed and he would follow her. Then went to the cellar, drove a nail in a rafter, attached the rope and hung himself.

TRUCE IN IOWA MINE STRIKE

Miners Furnish Men to Run Pumps and Keep Workings Dry.

Des Moines, Ia., April 2.—A truce for fifteen days has been declared between the coal operators and the striking miners, and the latter are furnishing enough men to keep the engines and pumps going at each mine in the state, so that they may be kept dry. Signs of a coal famine appear in Des Moines in the form of increased prices for soft coal. One company bought coal at three prices during the day, paying $3, $3.50 and $4 a ton at different places. Business establishments have ordered lights off at earlier hours.

New Illinois Bank.

Springfield, Ill., April 2.—The auditor has issued a permit to John Davonport, T. J. Patterson, G. T. Caskins, C. M. Wasson and J. V. Capel to organize the Harrisburg State Savings bank at Harrisburg, Saline county, with a capital of $35,000.

DENVER PHYSICIAN DECLINES FORTUNE

Insists That His Sister Must Accept
Legacy of $1,800,000 Left Him
by His Uncle.

Denver, Col., April 2.—Dr. William A. Harroun has refused to accept $1,800,000. The fortune has just been left to him. He said it would be much better if his sister, Mrs. J. M. Lewis of Portland, Me., had the money, so he sent this telegram to her:

"I will not accept a cent of the money. It is all yours. This is final." Harroun is the heir of James A. Harroun, who died a few weeks ago in Ireland. James A. Harroun was a brother of Dr. Harroun's father and the last of the brothers to die.

An agreement was made between the brothers that the last to die should leave all his estate to the oldest living son of any brother. This happens to be Dr. Harroun. The property consists of a large estate in Ireland with a big supply of cash. Dr. Harroun is not old and not wealthy.

Dr. Harroun says he always has been able to make his own way, and he believes he always will. He adds that he is able to "paddle his own canoe."

Dr. Harroun will start for Portland, and will be accompanied by his wife. He wants to "elucidate" the matter of his sister accepting all the estate. The doctor will leave his wife in Portland, and, on April 15, he will sail for Ireland with his sister and her two children.

COMMITTS SUICIDE ON THE MAINE

Lieutenant Commander Warburton
Shoots Himself in Cabin of Ship.

Pensacola, Fla., April 2.—Lieutenant Commander Edgar Townsend Warburton, chief engineer of the battle ship Maine, now in this harbor, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head in his cabin on board that vessel. The executive officer of the ship was passing the door of Commander Warburton's cabin when the bullet, after passing through the brain, came through the door and struck the rail of the ship, barely missing him. The door of the commander's cabin was forced open. He was found lying on the floor, the revolver grasped in his right hand. The commander expired shortly afterward. No cause is known for the suicide. Commander Warburton, who was 48 years old, has been chief engineer of the Maine since that vessel was placed in commission. He was formerly of the Indiana, and was on the New Orleans during the Spanish-American war. The body will be shipped to Philadelphia, where his wife resides.

DEMANDS MONEY OF GOVERNOR

Grocer Is Bound Over on Charge of Extortion Due to Letters.

Springfield, Ill., April 2.—John S. Harvey, owner of a local grocery store, was bound over to the federal grand jury on a charge of sending threatening letters through the mails. The specific accusation is that he wrote to Col. Robert Loose of this city demanding $2,500 under threats of doing him bodily harm. Harvey is also accused of sending threatening letters to Gov. Yates, Sheriff Brainard and others, threatening their lives and to burn their property if he was not given money. He declared he is innocent, but waived examination and in default of $2,000 bail was sent to jail.

HUGE SWINDLE IN OIL STOCKS

Gigantic Scandal in Texas Field Forecast by Federal Jury.

Dallas, Texas, April 2.—Thousands of shares of oil stocks, based on properties in the imagination of those offering them for sale, are said to have been disposed of throughout the country. The federal grand jury for the eastern district has been making investigations in Paris for several weeks, and it is declared that indictments have been sworn out against men prominent in the railroad world and in other lines. A gigantic scandal in oil operations, it is announced, is about to be uncovered.

SANTE FE MAY FACE A STRIKE

Officials Issue an Ultimatum to the Machinist
Organization Against Advice.

DECLINE TO SIGN SCHEDULE NOW

Will Not Enter Into an Agreement with the Association
Until It Has Proved It Is Worthy of Consideration.

Chicago, April 2.—No agreement with the International Association of Machinists will be made by the Santa Fe Railroad company until the union has proved by its acts that it is worthy of such confidence. That, in substance, was the ultimatum given by the company to the committee from the union Friday night, and the question of a strike now rests entirely with the organization.

Among the conservative leaders a slight hope was held out that a strike might be averted, but they admitted that the situation was critical. The executive board of the International on the system which is kept a secret at this time. An official of the union said that if these men were put to work it would be taken as a declaration of war, as union men are being discharged daily.

Although both sides refuse to make public the nature of the ultimatum given to the men, it was learned that it was in the main a summary of the incendiary speeches and overt acts of T. L. Wilson, organizer for the International Association of Machinists. The company claims to have proof that Wilson incited the men to stand firm for their demands and to wreck

JAPANESE CAVALRY NEAR PINGYANG.

Association of Machinists, which body alone has the power to order a strike, is to meet in Washington Monday and act on the question. In the meantime an appeal will be made to President Ripley of the Santa Fe railroad, as the men are not convinced that the ultimatum given them by Third Vice President Kendrick is final or authoritative.

Strike May Be Hastened.

Another conference will be held between the union committee and Mr. Kendrick, but it is not expected that it will be productive of results, as the attitude of the company is said to be final.

What may hasten a strike is the fact that the company is hiring non-union men and making every preparation for trouble. Twenty-five machinists were hired by the company in Chicago and sent out to some point

Try to Avoid Walk-out.

Hugh Doran, a member of the national executive board, was in conference with Wilson and the other members of the committee. He said the radical utterances of Wilson were without authority and that cool judgment might yet avert a strike. The statement made by Wilson that he had been elected to manage the strike was also said to be untrue, as the power to appoint a strike leader rests with the national executive board, and it has not acted yet.

An official of the union said that there must be either a schedule or a strike. The company has said emphatically there will be no schedule signed, so that, while the strike order may be withheld for some days, it appears to be inevitable.

King of the Dainkils Only Wanted a Hundred Thalers for Concession...Was Given Twenty.

Washington, April 2.—Camel trusts and the agents of European governments were the principal difficulties against which the diplomatic mission, headed by Robert P. Skinner, had to contend in negotiating a commercial treaty with King Menelik of Abyssinia. The report of Lieutenant C. L. Huessey, U. S. N., who commanded the naval escort, has been received here. He says: "About six miles out from Harar the advance was met by a messenger from Ras Makonnen, nephew of Menelik and governor of Harar, inquiring if it was a private or national mission. The commissioner had been warned at Dire Dawa that some of the foreign representatives were trying to make it appear that the mission was a private undertaking in order to defeat its object.

Pres. Daland will play the organ in the Congregational church, Janesville, Easter Sunday evening, April 3, says the Milton Journal. He will play the following selections:
March of the Crusaders, from the "Legend of St. Elizabeth"—Liszt.
Duet, Quis est Homo, from the "Stabat Mater"—Rossini.

Religious March—Gullmont.
Selections from "Tannhauser"—Wagner.
March from "Tannhauser"—Wagner.

The "March of the Crusaders" is based upon a Gregorian Tone symbolic of the cross. This is heard in the opening notes of the melody, F, G and B flat, and is repeated again and again throughout the piece with a very striking rhythm. The second theme is the well-known hymn supposed to date from the time of Crusades, "Schonstet Herr Jesu" ("Fair Lord Jesus") which is twice used as a kind of a trio and is introduced in majestic style at the close.

"Quis est Homo" is a delicate bit of musical embroidery in Rossini's most artistic style, a duet for two sopranos with orchestral accompaniment, showing the pathetic sorrow of the Virgin Mary at the crucifixion. The "Religious March" by the great organist is based upon the opening notes of the chorus "Lift up your heads, O ye gates," in Handel's "Messiah."

JUDGE BAENSCH WAS IN MADISON

The Conservative Candidate for Governor, Visited with Friends.

Madison, Wis., April 2.—Judge Emil Baensch of Manitowoc, candidate for the republican nomination for governor of Wisconsin for the conservative element in opposition to Governor La Follette, has invaded the capitol city, the governor's home and opened his campaign by boldly throwing down the gauntlet and declaring his opposition to the present governor's desire for a third term.

On this ground he announced in a statement last night that he based his position on the overwhelming opinion of the rank and file of the republican party which he found to be opposed to the third term idea, which he said "does not arise so much from a spirit of criticism as from party tradition and good policy." He also declared himself in favor of building a new modern capitol in Madison and of building it of Madison design, with Wisconsin labor and Wisconsin materials.

The judge who is an experienced governor and knows all the political ropes and machinery, has held a levee in the lobby of the Park hotel and at his headquarters, both of which are directly opposite Governor La Follette's office, which in respect to its size, enthusiasm and continually full warrants the show of puckering distastefulness on the part of the opposite faction. Meanwhile democrats are quietly fanning the flame of the republican factional fight in the hope of turning it to account and possible success.

NO CLAIMS FOR THE LAST WAR

Investigation Shows That Veterans of the Spanish-American War Cannot Collect Back Pay.

Some time ago the following clipping appeared in a newspaper and as it affected many Rock county persons was investigated. At the request of Mr. B. F. Brown it is republished accompanied by a letter from Milo B. Stevens & Co. of Chicago who say that there is no claim which the government should pay.

Blank forms to make their claim for two months' extra pay were received this morning by local officers who served in the Spanish-American war.

Shortly after the Wisconsin regiments were mustered out of the service the claims of three of the officers of the Second regiment were allowed, when the auditor was murdered and his successor refused to allow any more of the claims.

Several months ago many Wisconsin officers clubbed together and hired Attorney W. W. Waterhouse of Oshkosh to fight the matter. A test case has been won and the attorney writes that he will have all the claims paid during the summer.

The amount coming to each man is so small that it would hardly pay to hire an attorney to look the matter up. The two months' pay would only amount to $31.20 for privates.

B. C. Brown, Janesville, Wis.
Dear Sir: Yours received. There is no law on ruling under which you can collect extra pay for your services in Co. A, 1st Wis. Vol. Inf. Very respectfully, Milo B. Stevens & Co.

SHOT WAS FIRED WITHOUT MALICE

VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL DEATH IN GRIFFIN CASE

RETURNED BY CORONER'S JURY

Evidence of Little Harold Marsh Threw New Light on Affair—Condon Hearing Monday.

Late yesterday afternoon the coroner's jury passed upon the evidence of the witnesses in the Griffin shooting affair and brought in a verdict stating that the death was caused by an accidental shot from a revolver fired by Johnny Condon without any malicious intent.

Hearing On Monday
The Condon boy's hearing will be held in municipal court Monday morning at ten o'clock. The verdict of the coroner's jury will of course have considerable bearing on the attitude which the court will assume toward the case. The testimony of the wee small Marsh boy presented the case in an entirely new light.

The Jurymen
The jury was composed of Dennis Hayes, Paul Young, Fred Green, Chas. Curtiss, George Barker and J. L. Bear.

LaGrippe Fatal To Weak Hearts.

Almost every day your attention is directed to the death of some one in your locality from heart disease. It is usually a middle aged or elderly person, who has recently suffered from an attack of La Grippe. Statistics prove that one person in four has a weak heart, and La Grippe wrecks it, destroys it. The deadly poisonous germs impoverish the blood, and eat out the nerves and muscular tissues of the heart, which robs it of its vital force, and death is the result. The surest sign of a weak heart is shortness of breath, after exercise, palpitation or fluttering, oppressed feeling in the chest, choking or smothering sensation, weak or hungry spells, and pain in heart or shoulder. Your heart cannot get well of itself any more than any other sick organ. It needs medicine, a hearty remedy; it needs a reliable heart medicine and tonic that will cure almost every case, even if pronounced hopeless, because it restores nerve and muscular energy, feeds the blood, and gives the heart the power to send rich, red, life-giving fluid coursing through the body. I had a severe attack of La Grippe, and when it left me I was extremely nervous, and my heart was affected. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine, and am pleased to say that it has completely cured me. I think they are wonderful remedies, and I recommend them whenever opportunity presents. WM. A. ROBERT, Eau Claire, Wis. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold under a guarantee that if first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will return your money. We stand back of this guarantee. DR. R. W. Little and family entertained callers from the city Sunday evening.

Pete Hammans is moving onto a farm near Clinton.
Claude Fredendall spent Monday with Edwin Welch.
Mrs. John Turnbull was called to Beloit Wednesday by the illness of a relative.
Chas. Bennett is helping Fred Risch move.
An agent in the interests of the Sugar Beet Co., has been calling on our people the past week.
At the home of Aug. Tolles on the Beloit road on Wednesday evening, March 30th, occurred the marriage of his daughter Maude, to Edwin, son of Chas. J. Wright of Turtle. The ceremony took place at eight o'clock when as the wedding march was played by Miss Edith Rice, the handsome young couple entered the room and standing under a beautiful arch of smilax and roses pledged their truth each other for life, and in the presence of their immediate families were pronounced man and wife by the Rev. C. Bulley. After congratulations were received the guests repaired the supper table and partook of a dainty wedding feast. A pleasant social evening was spent, and amid many good wishes the happy couple left for their own home. Here surprises were in store for them, the multitudinous presents having been all conveyed there previously. The bride looked very pretty indeed in her brown veil skirt and waist of cream crepe de chene, trimmed with lace. The pink and white roses on her breast enhanced the effect. A more popular young couple would be hard to find than the one, for both in their homes and the community their sterling qualities have won for them hosts of friends. The Gazette joins these in warm congratulations.

PRESS COMMENT.

Evansville Review: The recent caucus held in this city, did not pass any resolutions either for or against the present administration. Reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Evening Wisconsin: The judge at New Haven, Connecticut, yesterday, who told William Jennings Bryan to "please sit down," issued a very mild command. Twice within the past eight years the American people have told Mr. Bryan to "go way back and sit down."

Oshkosh Northwestern: Of course the governor cannot make up his mind whether he is a candidate or not until after he has heard the returns from the elections next Tuesday.

La Crosse Chronicle: It is announced that the newspaper men have quit Port Arthur. This is the first instance on record in which men of the craft have deserted anything that is "bottled up."

Green Bay Advocate: Green Bay will never will never reach its proper development until its people forget that a river cuts the town in two. We will be two small towns, jealous of each other's successes until one patriotism become strong enough to cross the river. Then we will become a city.

Minneapolis Times: It is hard to see how the country can get through this campaign without at least two Democratic parties. The two wings are still about as far apart as Oshkosh and Calcutta.

To California and West MAY 1st

The thirty day trip with Prof. J. M. Turner in his private hotel car is to start May 1st in place of May 7th as heretofore stated. Twenty people will comprise the party, and the car starts from Janesville. The cost for the entire trip with stops at the principal western cities, including a ride to Cataline Island is

$125.00

This amount covers everything but incidentals and is the best outing offer yet made. The experience of the tourist agent who accompanies the party will be a convenience for the travelers easily appreciated. The points of interest at all places visited will be readily accessible because of the knowledge of this tourist agent. The many minor disagreeable points which assail the traveler are eliminated. The entire plan is ideal, the time of departure is most opportune, the season the most agreeable for travel, and the rate is certainly moderate. Your hotel and sleeping car bills alone would be close to the amount charged for the entire trip. Write for further information to

STILL SEEKING JOHN TEMPLETON

FATHER GOEBEL BEGINS SEARCH FOR MISSING BOY.

HE IS NOT YET 15 YEARS OLD

Left His Home in Janesville Last
August, and No Trace of Him
Has Been Found.

The whereabouts of Johnny Templeton, the 14-year-old Janesville boy, who left his home last August and has not since been heard from, is again being asked. Johnny was a bright little fellow and rather large for his age. He had large, blue eyes, dark, brown hair and a fair skin. His departure has caused his aunt and uncle, with whom he lived, much worry and it is hoped he may be found.

Father Goebel at Work
Father Goebel of St. Mary's Catholic church has now taken the matter up and circulars have been sent out all over the state and to Chi-

JOHNNY TEMPLETON
Cago and Milwaukee with the hopes of locating the missing youngster. He left his home without any warning or any apparent cause after having had lunch with his aunt. He is rumored to have told several of his little friends that he was going to Milwaukee and even hinted that he was going farther away. He was well thought of by his playmates and his teachers.

Hope for News
In the circular which is being sent out, any information regarding the whereabouts of the boy is kindly asked by Father Goebel. Search will also be made in Milwaukee and Chicago for the missing youngster.

ECHOES FROM THE STORM LAST WEEK

Cyclone Passing by South Clinton Destroyed Much Property—Fifty Windmills Demolished.

Last week Thursday evening, according to the Clinton Banner, a funnel-shaped cloud was observed moving eastward in South Clinton. The ruin of Relief Peterson's place gave evidence that a cyclone had passed. The barn, except a small portion, was completely wrecked, the granary moved from its foundation and twisted around, the chicken house and corn crib were blown to pieces and scattered over an area of 80 rods. The residence was also partially demolished. No one was injured although Mr. Peterson and his hired man were in the barn during the storm. Further traces were seen to the south and east where havoc was wrought in the timber. At Sevenson and Warner places considerable damage was also done. Mrs. E. Torsen's tobacco shed and Iver Jacobson's silo were also damaged during the same storm. In Sharon, Walworth county, the cover of the village water tower was blown off and hung suspended by the iron ladder near the top of the tower until Thursday last, when it loosened itself in some manner and fell to the ground with a tremendous crash. On the S. M. Warren farm the roof of the barn was torn off and damage amounting to $300 was done. The loss on the J. W. Brownson farm, Nelson Jacobson tenant, was from $600 to $700. Fifty windmills were demolished in various places in the path of the storm.

Martha, the Hon-like, came back and licked his chops, and contested with mild-mannered April for the right to rule, on the opening day of April's reign. The state of the weather did not deceive the small boy, however, who after a long wait with nothing doing since St. Patrick's day, took advantage of the rights which are his on his first of every April and spent a gloomy day in trying "fooling people." And it was astonishing how seldom people seemed to be fooled. Staid old gentlemen, with gold-headed canes and high hats did not stop a moment, look carefully around, and take a good, hard kick at the old hat with the brick under it, and then grab their toes and jump around frantically to the great delight of the small boy behind the alley fence. If you had followed one of these staid old gentlemen you would have found him at the next corner, peering around from behind a tree, to see what luck the conspirators were having with their staid old gentlemen. It was a merry day for boys and men alike. One teamster, when asked if he could haul a load yesterday first wanted to know if it were an April fool joke before he replied.

Most of the jokes were of the kind that have stood the test of time, but there were some not so familiar. A number of more ambitious and energetic boys went round visiting people at an hour when only the milkman and the hold burglar are supposed to be stirring, and after awakening the head of the household put to him this question: "Have you a pair of slippers?" when the good, old man replied between curses, that he had, the boys would shout in a chorus: "Handy things to have around the house, ain't they. Nice for early in the morning, April fool."

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

River an Inch Lower: The level of Rock river has lowered an inch within the past twenty-four hours and it is confidently anticipated that the "recessional" will continue from now on until the normal stage is reached.

No Guests at Jail: Landlord Phillips of the hostelry maintained in the basement of the city hall finds himself today without a single guest to spend Easter in his care. The colored Easter eggs and real cream for the coffee which he may have secured will have to be otherwise used.

Says It Was an Error: Thomas Flanagan of Green county, an uncle of Johnny Condon, says that James Condon, the father of the boy, and not he, retained the attorney who is to defend the lad in court.

DULL DAY FOR THE SMALL BOY

Good Friday and All Fools' Day Did Not Go Well Together—
Little Fun Doing.

March, the Hon-like, came back and licked his chops, and contested with mild-mannered April for the right to rule, on the opening day of April's reign. The state of the weather did not deceive the small boy, however, who after a long wait with nothing doing since St. Patrick's day, took advantage of the rights which are his on his first of every April and spent a gloomy day in trying "fooling people." And it was astonishing how seldom people seemed to be fooled. Staid old gentlemen, with gold-headed canes and high hats did not stop a moment, look carefully around, and take a good, hard kick at the old hat with the brick under it, and then grab their toes and jump around frantically to the great delight of the small boy behind the alley fence. If you had followed one of these staid old gentlemen you would have found him at the next corner, peering around from behind a tree, to see what luck the conspirators were having with their staid old gentlemen. It was a merry day for boys and men alike. One teamster, when asked if he could haul a load yesterday first wanted to know if it were an April fool joke before he replied.

Most of the jokes were of the kind that have stood the test of time, but there were some not so familiar. A number of more ambitious and energetic boys went round visiting people at an hour when only the milkman and the hold burglar are supposed to be stirring, and after awakening the head of the household put to him this question: "Have you a pair of slippers?" when the good, old man replied between curses, that he had, the boys would shout in a chorus: "Handy things to have around the house, ain't they. Nice for early in the morning, April fool."

KNIGHTS' TEMPLAR EASTER SERVICE

WILL BE HELD AT MASONIC HALL
AT 2:30 P. M.

N. M. LITTLEJOHN TO SPEAK

Whitewater Man Will Tell of Significance of Day—Masons' Families and Friends Invited.

N. M. Littlejohn of Whitewater, thirty-third degree Mason and Past Grand Master of the order in Wisconsin will deliver the principal address at the special Easter day services to be held at Masonic hall under the auspices of the Janesville Commandery of Knights Templar at half-past two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The services will be under the immediate direction of T. O. Howe, prelate of the commandery. All Masons with their families and friends are invited and the invitation is therefore practically a general one. It is hoped that the attendance will be large.

Day of Significance

Easter day is of great significance to the Knights Templar. The whole degree centres about Christ and the Christian religion. It is the custom on this annual festival either to attend some church in a body or conduct the service in the commandery's own asylum. The Easter ritual of the Templars includes readings and responses that bear a certain resemblance to those of the Episcopal church. The members of the order will wear full regalia tomorrow with the exception of the sword which is not worn on days pre-eminently devoted to peace.

Whitewater Knights Coming

Mr. Littlejohn, accompanied by a number of Knights from Whitewater, will arrive in the city at 10:20 tomorrow morning. He will be the guest of Commander A. E. Matheson until Monday. Mr. Littlejohn is well known outside of Masonic circles. He has been prominent in Walworth county politics for years and was one of the prominent congressional candidates some years ago. Recently he completed his term as mayor of Whitewater. He is a capable speaker and what he will have to say will be certain to interest all who attend.

SERVICES HELD THIS MORNING

Funeral of the Late James O'Malley
Held from St. Mary's Church.

Funeral services over the remains of the late James O'Malley were held this morning from St. Mary's church at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Goebel conducted the services. There was a large attendance of sympathizing friends and relatives present at the last sad rites. At the conclusion of the services the remains were taken to Mt. Olivet cemetery and interred in their last resting place.

The pallbearers were son and grandsons of the deceased, Charles O'Malley, John O'Malley, James Cronin, John Cronin, Lawrence Cronin and Charles Cronin.

MAKING READY FOR PRODUCTION

Of Play by the Florence Camp of Modern Woodmen, Entitled
"Woodmen's Ward."

The degree team of Florence Camp, No. 366, Modern Woodmen of America, are doing some great hustling for the success of their play "The Woodmen's Ward" with fifty people in the play, which is to be presented at the Grand opera house on Tuesday evening, April 12. The boys have already sold a large number of tickets, and the indications are that they will pack the house. The following people will take part in the play: Mr. Harry DeLong, director and manager; Mrs. Ruth DeLong, Minnie Anderson, Francis Connelly, Minnie Donnelly, Hazel Fisher, Leon Bailey, Jennie Bailey, Charles Caniff, J. W. Van Bynum, O. S. Morse, R. V. Knox, Lynn Whaley, L. L. Hilton, O. A. Mable, Masters Ronald Aids and Richard Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Huyk, musical directors, assisted by the degree team—16 men in full regalia.

EVANSVILLE FAVORS STEVENS FOR CLERK

Home Paper Gives Young Janesville
Attorney a Send-Off—Says
He Will Have Delegates.

W. A. Stevens of Janesville has been visiting at the parental home for several days this week, says the Evansville Review. Incidentally he is looking over the field regarding chances for the office of clerk of the court, at the forthcoming convention. Mr. Stevens is a well-known young man whose home has always been in this city, and therefore needs no enlargements regarding his capabilities for the office in question. He carries with him a wealth of good common sense coupled with keen and shrewd business abilities, which are far reaching in the qualifications of able business men. So far as Evansville is concerned, there can be no question but that Mr. Stevens will take the entire support of the delegates and likewise in the town.

BASE BALL TALK FROM UNIVERSITY

What the Lovers of the National Game May Expect from the Badgers This Year.

Coach "Beams" Pierce of the University of Wisconsin baseball team, has picked the nine that will, with perhaps a few changes as the season progresses, represent the cardinal on the western intercollegiate diamond this season. The greater part of the pitching work will be performed by Captain Gordon Lewis, the clever baseball player who is accused of having played professional ball last summer. The chief other pitcher will be Edwin G. Young of Beaver Dam. There are other capable twirlers in the squad of 20 or more candidates, but Lewis and Young are to be relied upon for the major part of the work in the box. The catchers will be Lecky and Perry. Both are experienced players and are said to be equally good in the throw to bases and at the bat. It is improbable that any of the other candidates for the backstop position will be used. At first base, although he has not appeared yet for practice and may miss some of the early games of the schedule, He was a candidate for each, but failed to get the place, one reason being his darker color. E. J. Bush of Milwaukee, captain of the football team, will also try for first base, but there are reasons why the management desire him to play little league ball, reserving his time for the development of the gridiron team. E. J. Bush of Green Bay, a member of the Wisconsin joint debate team that recently defeated the Michigan team, will play second base. John H. Hoolz of Burlington, Wis., is slated to play short stop. Jesse P. Brush of Stevensville, Minn., will play third base. The outfield is more problematical, but Coach Pierce is determined that these places are to be filled by men who can be depended upon to make the hits that count in the scoring end of the game. The left field place will be occupied by Persons, who was next to Lewis in the election for the captaincy. He is a safe hitler and fast on his feet after the long hits. Will Roy, a former Madison high school star on the diamond, who went east and served with credit as captain of the freshman team of the Princeton university nine, will play in right field. He was a classmate with Coach Pierce in the high school and will be one of the strongest players on the badger nine this season. Howard P. Savage of Chicago, who shared the professional charges with Captain Lewis, is scheduled to play center field. He is also a football player of ability.

This team has been provisionally selected by Coach Pierce and will doubtless be the combination of the season. However, the coach announces that no player has a "clinch" on any place and changes, he says, will be made freely in case other candidates prove more able than those selected. The out of doors practice has already shown that the Wisconsin nine is to be strong and it is hopefully stated at Madison that the badgers will make a creditable showing this year, perhaps leading the western intercollegiate championship.

SOCIETY.

Easter Sunday comes tomorrow and with the glad Easter bells the long forty days of lent have passed away. Janesville promises to be unusually gay this spring. Opening with the Spring-Soverhill party the coming five or six weeks promise to be full of gaiety for the society people of the city. Many of the different fraternal orders and others have arranged for elaborate dances and the orchestras throughout the city say that they will be busy for some weeks to come, filling the orders that are now in. Card clubs resume away during the coming week and the ladies of the duplicate whist and the euchre clubs will again hold their weekly gatherings. While the weather is still inclement for out of doors golfing still several dances and informal parties are being planned for the coming two weeks at the Country club. When spring really does open the St. Nicholas links promise to be very gay. The tennis courts will all furnish amusement for those who do not play the game, while a first class clubhouse will add to the pleasure of the clubhouse.

On Thursday afternoon Paul Leslie, the son of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Leslie, of 166 North High street, entertained fifteen of his friends at his sixth birthday party. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent in games and a charming little supper was served before the young guests departed for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Claremont S. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Jackson, and Miss Marjorie Jackson issued invitations today for a dancing party to be given at Central hall on the evening of Wednesday, April thirteenth.

Easter will be celebrated tomorrow at Masonic hall and all Masons and their families are invited to be present.

Members of Mrs. Day's senior physical culture class will participate in an entertainment at Footville tonight.

Miss Gladys Helms went to Milwaukee to spend Easter with her grandfather.

George Neumann left this morning to spend Easter with friends.

Moran of the Lady Letty

By
FRANK NORRIS.

Author of "The Octopus," "The Pit," Etc.

Copyright, 1895, by
S. S. McClure Company

As Wilbur and Moran came around the cabin they saw the Bertha Miller's Chinamen in a group not far from the water's edge, reassembled after the fight, panting and bloody, some of them bare to the belt, their weapons still in their hands. Here and there was a bandaged arm or head, but their number was complete—or, no, was it complete?

"Ought to be one more," said Wilbur, anxiously hastening forward. As the two came up the coolies parted, and Wilbur saw one of them, his head propped up on a rolled up blouse, lying motionless still on the trampled sand.

"It's Charlie!" exclaimed Moran. "Where's he hurt?" cried Wilbur to the group of coolies. "Jim—where's Jim? Where's he hurt, Jim?"

Jim, the only member of the crew besides Charlie who could understand or speak English, answered:

"Kak-gling him du' pistol, you' pistol. Charlie him fight plenty. Bimely, when he no see, one piece Kak-gling he come up heh'n, shoot um Charlie in side—savvy?"

"Did he kill him? Is he dead?" "No. I think die plenty soon. Him no savvy 'nuttin' now. Him all same sleep. Plenty soon blueby him sleep for good, I think."

There was little blood to be seen when Wilbur gently unwrapped the torn sleeve of a blouse that had been used as a bandage. Just under the armpit was the mark of the bullet, a small puncture already closed, half hidden under a clot or two of blood. The cooly lay quite unconscious, his eyes wide open, drawing a faint, quick breath at irregular intervals.

"What do you think, mate?" asked Moran in a low voice.

"I think he's got it through the lungs," answered Wilbur, frowning in distress and perplexity. "Poor old Charlie!"

Moran went down on a knee and put a finger on the slim, corded wrist, yellow as old ivory.

"Charlie!" she called. "Charlie! Here! Don't you know me? Wake up, old chap! It's Moran. You're not hurt so very bad, are you?"

Charlie's eyes closed and opened a couple of times.

"No can tell," he answered feebly. "Hurt plenty big." Then he began to cough.

Wilbur drew a sigh of relief. "He's all right!" he exclaimed.

"Yes, I think he's all right," assented Moran.

"First thing to do now is to get him aboard the schooner," said Wilbur. "We'll take him right across in the beachcombers' dory here. By Jove!" he exclaimed on a sudden. "The ambergris! I'd forgotten all about it." His heart sank. In the hideous confusion of that morning's work all thought of the loot had been forgotten. Had the battle been for nothing, after all? The moment the beachcombers had been made aware of the meditated attack it would have been an easy matter for them to have hidden the ambergris—destroyed it even.

In two strides Wilbur had reached the beachcombers' dory and was groping in the forward caddy. Then he uttered a great shout of satisfaction. The "stuff" was there, all of it though the mass had been cut into quarters, three parts of it stowed in tea tins, the fourth still reared up in the hammock netting.

"We've got it!" he cried to Moran, who had followed him. "We've got it, Moran! Over $100,000! We're rich—rich as bodiless, you and I! Oh, it was worth fighting for, after all, wasn't it? Now we'll get out of here—now we'll get home."

"It's only Charlie I'm thinking about," answered Moran, hesitating. "If it wasn't for that we'd be all right. I don't know whether we did right, after all, in jumping the camp here. I wouldn't like to feel that I'd got Charlie into our quarrel only to have him killed."

Wilbur stared at this new Moran in no little amazement. Where was the reckless, untamed girl of the previous night, who had sworn at him and denounced his niggling misgivings as to right and wrong?

"Hoh!" he retorted impatiently. "Charlie's right enough. And, besides, I didn't force him to anything. I—we—that is, we took the same chances. If I hadn't done for my man there behind the cabin, he would have done for me. At all events, we carried our point. We got the loot. They took it from us, and we were strong enough to get it back."

Moran merely nodded, as though satisfied with his decision, and added:

"Well, what next, mate?" "We'll get back to the Bertha now and put to sea as soon as we can catch the tide. I'll send Jim and two of the other men across in the dory with Charlie. The rest of us will go around by the shore. We've got to have a chin-chin with Hoang, if he don't get loose aboard there and fire the boat before we can get back. I don't propose taking these beachcombers back to Frisco with us."

"What will we do with the two prisoners?" she asked.

"Let them go. We've got their arms."

The positions of the two were reversed. It was Wilbur who assumed control and direction of what went forward, Moran taking his advice and relying upon his judgment.

In accordance with Wilbur's orders, Charlie was carried aboard the dory, which, with two Chinamen at the oars, and the ambergris stowed again into the caddy, at once set off for the schooner. Wilbur himself cut the ropes on the two prisoners and bade them shift for themselves. The rest of the party returned to the Bertha Miller around the wide sweep of the beach.

It was only by high noon, under the fogging of a merciless sun, that the entire crew of the little schooner once more reassembled under the shadow of her stranded hull. They were quite worn out, and as soon as Charlie was lifted aboard and the ambergris—or, as they spoke of it now, the "loot"—was safely stowed in the cabin, Wilbur allowed the Chinamen three or four hours' rest. They had had neither breakfast nor dinner, but their exhaustion was greater than their hunger, and in a few moments the entire half dozen were stretched out asleep on the forward deck in the shadow of the foremast, raised for the purpose of sheltering them. However, Wilbur and Moran sought out Hoang, whom they found as they had left him, bound upon the floor of the cabin.

"Now we have a talk—savvy?" Wilbur told him as he loosed the ropes about his wrists and ankles. "We got our loot back from you, old man, and we got one of your men into the bargain. You woke up the wrong crowd, Hoang, when you went up against this outfit. You're in a bad way, my friend. Your junk is wrecked, all your oil and blubber from the whale is lost, four of your men have run away, one is killed, another one we caught and let go, another one has been hamstringed, and you yourself are our prisoner, with your teeth filed down to your gums. Now," continued Wilbur, with the profoundest gravity, "I hope this will be a lesson to you. Don't try and get too much the next time. Just be content with what is yours by right or what you are strong enough to keep, and don't try to fight white people. Other coolies, I don't say. But when you try to get the better of white people you are out of your class."

The little beachcomber (he was scarcely above five feet) rubbed his chafed wrists and fixed Wilbur with his tiny, twinkling eyes.

"What you do now?"

"We go home. I'm going to maroon you and your people here on this beach. You deserve that I should let you eat your fists by way of table board, but I'm no such dirt as you. When our men left the schooner they brought off with them a good share of our provisions. I'll leave them here for you, and there's plenty of turtle and abalone to be had for the catching. Some of the American men-of-war, I believe, come down to this bay for target practice twice a year, and if we speak any on the way up we'll ask them to call here for castaways. That's what I'll do for you, and that's all! If you don't like it you can set out to march up the coast till you hit a town, but I wouldn't advise you to try it. Now, what have you got to say?"

Hoang was silent. His eye had become unbound for half its length, and he platted it anew, winking his eyes thoughtfully.

"Well, what do you say?" said Moran.

"I lose face," answered Hoang at length calmly.

"You lose face? What do you mean?"

"I lose face," he insisted, then added: "I heap 'shamed. You fighter my Chin boy, you cathee me. My boy no mo' lub me fo' boss—savvy? I go back, him no like me. Mebbe all same like me. I lose face—no mo' boss."

"What a herd of wild cattle!" muttered Wilbur.

"There's something in what he says, don't you think, mate?" observed Moran, bringing a blade over each shoulder and stroking it, according to her habit.

"We'll ask Jim about it," decided Wilbur.

But Jim at once confirmed Hoang's statement. "Oh, Kak-gling killum no good boss, fo' sure," he declared.

"Don't you think, mate," said Moran, "we'd better take him up to Frisco with us? We've had enough fighting and killing."

So it was arranged that the defeated beachcomber, the whipped bucciner, who had "lost face" and no longer dared look his men in the eye, should be taken aboard.

La Crosse Chronicle: Mr. Wall may not have a "chance" but he is certainly monopolizing democratic attention in this state. No movement which inspires desperate opposition is without merit. Mr. Wall certainly has some strength in Wisconsin.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send five stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ELECTION NOTICE

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK, Janesville, Wis., March 27, 1904.

To the Electors of Rock County: Notice is hereby given that a judicial election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the County of Rock, on the 6th day of April, 1904, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The name of the candidate for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column:

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. If it be a general election these words are to follow: "The voter if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark, X, under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the circle made for that purpose. A ballot so marked and having no other mark, will be counted for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased or a cross mark be placed in the square under the name or at any place in the space occupied by the name or names of candidates in another column, and will be counted for any name written in lieu of one erased. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties he should make a cross mark under the name of each candidate he desires to vote for, or at any place within the space in which the name is printed. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same to be chosen by the voter, and if he declares that he is totally blind he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

T. H. McGahan Tells How Father John's Medicine Cured Him of the Grip.

Alderman T. H. McGahan, of Amsterdam, N. Y., writes: "Father John's Medicine cured my grip, colds, bronchitis and asthma used for grip, bronchial trouble and as an appetizer. I have recommended it to many here, as they all report the same success. I gave it to my little child, who was for over two weeks nearly choking with bronchitis. She was relieved at once, and after taking two bottles, was entirely well."

CLOTHES FOR LITTLE FELLOWS

Boys and Young Men, Spring and Summer 1904, at the
..T. J. ZIEGLER CLOTHING CO.'S BOYS' DEP'T..

There's a good deal of sameness about the common run of Boys' Clothes and it's easy for folks to go to a store and take the first thing that offers. Many would like something different and better if they only knew what to ask for. We make it easy for you in our Boys' Department to make a selection. The information we will give you doesn't cost you anything but it's worth a good deal. You don't have to pay any more for the clothes and it pays better to buy them.

COLUMBIA—Ages 2½ to 8 Years
 Mothers who favor the sailor collar effect will find nothing daintier than our Columbia suit. Made of Serge or Cheviot in solid shades of blue, brown and red; or in Homespuns, Fancy Cheviots, Scotchies or mixtures. It has a wide sailor collar and shield with naval device, embroidered in colors. It is trimmed with braid, soutache and brass buttons. The finishing touch is added by a soft silk tie, looped in a butterfly bow.

RELIANCE—Ages 2½ to 8 Years
 A sturdy little suit is the Reliance, with box collar and soft silk bow tie. Made of plain fabrics in all the smart shades as well as mixed suitings and fancy patterns. It has a belt of the same material as the suit and is one of the most practical styles of the season—a great favorite with the little fellows themselves who are quick to appreciate its manly effect.

ETON SAILOR—Ages 3 to 12 Years
 The little chap in the chair is wearing the Eton Sailor—a nautical style but with the starched Eton collar of white linen, one of which is furnished with each suit. The materials are Serge and Cheviots in solid shades of red, blue, olive and brown, or fancy patterns and mixtures. The blouse has a box pleat in the front, trimmed with brass buttons.

RUSSIAN BLOUSE WITH ETON COLLAR—Ages 2½ to 7 Years
 If you would keep the boy young the soft lines of the Russian Blouse will preserve the childish charm that mothers are so loth to lose. The suit in our illustration with its long belted Cossack coat and bloomer trousers is made of a score of fabrics; plain colors, fancy patterns and mixtures, trimmed with braid and brass buttons, a leather belt with brass harness buckle and a flowing end silk tie.

SINGLE BREASTED SACK SUIT—Ages 6 to 16 Years
 The lad standing up is wearing a Sykes-Kirschbaum single breasted two-piece suit—sack coat and knee pants—made in a great variety of men's suitings, Scotch Cheviots, Irish Homespuns, Blue Serges, Tweeds, English Worsted and double and twist materials—light and dark colors—checks, overplaid and fancy mixtures. Accompanying each suit is a belt of the same material finished with a nickel-plated buckle.

DOUBLE BREASTED SACK SUIT—Ages 6 to 16 Years
 The boy playing marbles was painted from life just as you see him here. He has on our double breasted two-piece suit—coat and knee pants. It is made of plain dark goods or of fancy Worsted, Cheviot mixtures and Irish Homespuns in all the new patterns of men's suitings such as described above.

NORFOLK SUIT—Ages 6 to 16 Years
 Little brother on the left with the tennis racquet on his knee is shown in the Norfolk jacket and knickerbockers. This is our new double breasted English Norfolk with full belt. Made of Cheviots, Irish Homespuns, Worsted and Serge in the latest spring colors and mixtures. It is trim and boyish in effect; well adapted for out-door wear in summer.

YOUNG MEN'S OUTING SUIT—Ages 14 to 20 Years
 Young men will be interested in our stylish and shapely two-piece suit, coat and trousers, to be worn with negligee shirt and a belt. It is quarter lined, white and cool; made of Scotch Cheviots, Irish Homespuns, Tweeds, tropical Worsted, blue Serges and Cheviots. Note the long graceful collar and the peg-top trousers with permanent turnup.

YOUNG MEN'S DOUBLE BREASTED—Ages 14 to 20 Years
 High school boys, college chaps and young fellows everywhere are eager to wear our new and better sort of young men's suits as soon as they know about them. The left hand figure shows our double breasted jacket suit, of blue Serge, blue or black Cheviot, fancy Scotchies, Tweeds, Irish Homespuns, English Worsted and all the new things shown by the men's tailors this spring.

YOUNG MEN'S SINGLE BREASTED—Ages 14 to 20 Years
 The figure at this side shows the single breasted style, made in all the popular men's suitings as described above. It is especially effective in the new Scotch Cheviot plaids and Homespun mixtures in grace and style and adaptability to the figure. The Sykes-Kirschbaum suits show a great advance over any work thus far done for young men.

It's a mistake to think a boy is without a sense of the effect of dress. He has a very natural and proper pride in wearing such Suits as we sell. He likes neat CAPS—we have a very large line of Spring styles. Also all the new things for the boys in Ties.

DISCUSS CANDIDATES.

Senate Leaders Indulge in Political Debate During Session.

Washington, April 2.—During a strenuous political debate in the senate Senator Beveridge challenged Senator Simmons of North Carolina to name the choice of the Democratic party for the presidency, and sought in vain to pin him down to an endorsement of either Judge Parker or Hearst. Mr. Simmons had been extolling the virtues of the man who would be named by the Democrats, declaring that he was such a person as would be able to draw a large Republican vote.

"Is your candidate Judge Parker?" asked Mr. Beveridge.

"That is a secret," replied Mr. Simmons.

"Well, is it Mr. Hearst?" pursued the senator from Indiana.

"It would be improper to reply," was the response.

"Then," remarked Mr. Beveridge, "according to the senator from North Carolina, Judge Parker is a secret, and Mr. Hearst is improper."

Then Mr. Beveridge declared that the Republicans had agreed upon a leader, Theodore Roosevelt.

CANAL TRANSFER.

Panama Stockholders Will Meet April 23 to Complete Deal.

Washington, April 2.—At the session of the cabinet a cablegram was read by Attorney General Knox stating that a meeting of the stockholders of the Panama Canal company had been called for April 23. At that time the final action will be taken by the company in the transfer of the canal property to the United States. When the legal technicalities have been complied with on the part of the company the United States will be in position to pay over to the company the $10,000,000 for the canal property. At the same time $10,000,000 will be paid to the republic of Panama. Of the necessary amount $20,000,000 are on deposit in New York subject to the order of Secretary Shaw. The remaining $20,000,000 will be paid out of the current funds of the treasury. It is just possible that Secretary Shaw may issue an additional call upon the national bank depositors in order that the treasury may meet the payment of the $20,000,000 without drawing too heavily upon its funds.

SUNDAY CIVIL BILL.

House Debates Army Measure After Voting One Appropriation Act.

Washington, April 2.—The house Friday passed the sundry civil appropriation bill after voting down a proposition by Mr. Sulzer to recommit it with instructions to strike out the appropriation of $125,000 for rent of the New York custom house. The remainder of the day was devoted to discussion of the conference report on the appropriation bill. With the exception of one amendment, providing certain increases in the signal corps, the house disagreed to all other important senate amendments and the bill was sent back to conference. The proposition to consolidate the office of the adjutant general with that of the record and pension division and make Brig. Gen. Almsworth, chief of the latter division, military secretary with the rank of major general and put him in charge and the amendment to allow officers who served in the civil war to retire at the next higher grade were debated and met strong opposition.

Consul General Resigns.

Washington, April 2.—The state department has received the resignation of Andrew D. Barlow, United States consul general at Mexico, and has accepted it.

National Bank Statement.

Washington, April 2.—The comptroller of the currency at Washington has issued a call for statements of national banks at close of business on March 23.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

April Fool Jokes: Frank Smith's barber shop door was adorned with a few rags in the shape of a crope yesterday morning when Smith opened the shop. Later in the day the North Main street upholsterer's place was closed and a few rags and bunch of onions were hanging from his place of business when he returned. He is now looking for the guilty parties.

One on David Brown: David Brown the Court street feed man while going to Belmont on the interurban rule, cently, asked the conductor if the car was not going back to Belmont. The conductor replied, "Where do you want to get off?" Dave said, "Any old place." So the car was stopped and Dave was let off out by the schoolhouse. For further particulars see Dave.

County Jail's Easter: The green and colored eggs which are to be conspicuous by their absence at the city lock-up will be on hand at the county jail tomorrow. Friends of Beecher Kerwin and Gus Johnson presented them with a large sack of tobacco this afternoon and some of the other prisoners have been the recipients of similar gifts.

Former Mayor John Young of Broadhead is in the city today. Mr. Young is an extensive dealer in sugar river pearls.

Broke Up the Game: A situation, classic in conception, and remarkable, if true, is reported to have been created at 11:30 last evening when the electric lights were furnishing only a dim glow. It is asserted that at this certain hour the following message went smoking over the telephone wires to the dynamo house: "What's the matter with your lights?" We are just in the middle of a red hot poker game and it is so dim now that it's hard to distinguish a blue from a white chip. If such a thing is possible turn on the illumination."
